PERSONAL NARRATIVE

Tips for Adding Details

- Details in a personal narrative provide information and enrich the narrative, making it more interesting, vivid, and realistic.

I ate dinner. 😞

I had a moonlight dinner of sardine sandwiches on the deck of the SS Griff. 😊

- Use details to communicate a sense of place.

The mountain was tall. 😞

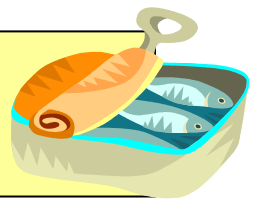

The ice encrusted pinnacle of the mountain loomed over the town. 😊

- Use details to communicate sights, sounds, feelings, tastes, and smells.

It smelled bad. 😞

It smelled like a dead fish that had been left in the sun for a week. 😊

- Make sure that all details are related to the story's main topic.
